

Former Jennings home was put up for bids to remove the property to preserve, but there was no response. Therefore the County has moved into phase 2 of this project and will be taking bids on the demolition of the building. The bids will be due August 7th, 2017 to the Commissioners.

The old Jennings Market building will be the site of future County projects to come.